

Consent for Text (SMS) and Email Messaging

Your health care is important to us. In order to provide you with the best possible care, we may occasionally send convenient text messages or email messages to our patients about their health care and the products and services we offer. We may send you text (SMS) or email messages as a reminder for an upcoming appointments or important information if you have chosen this as a preferred method of contact. Please consult with your mobile provider re. text messaging charges.

You will receive such messages (appointment reminders) through our EHR system or AdvancedMD. You will receive such messages (newsletters, practice announcements) through our website. You would receive no more than two informative emails per month. Your information will never be distributed or sold to a third party affiliate.

If you wish to change your preferences in order to receive promotional text messages or if you wish to decline receiving all text messages from Georgia Vascular Specialists, PC, please let us know.

We look forward to providing better and more convenient communications with you via text messaging and email. Our goal is to provide you with relevant and useful information about your health care and the products and services we offer for improving your health. Thank you!
